Bethlehem Quilt Cottage at 145 Thorn Brook Rd Bethlehem, Georgia 30620

Quilt 'n Kaboodle at 1628-B Highway 115 East, Cleveland, GA 30528

These two new quilt shops have our kits to sign out and will receive finished quilts. Remember these shops when you need more kits to sew for us. Also, they carry thread and batting to purchase to finish your quilt. Check out their fabric too and thank them for partnering with our chapter of Quilts for Kids.

Thanks also to Dee at Bethlehem Quilt Cottage for promoting our kits. Three shoppers have taken advantage of the opportunity to sew for kids and have checked out 25+ kits over the last few weeks. Can't wait to pick up these goodies soon. They have managed to keep me busy cutting kits during this usually slow time of June. Thanks to Lorrie K. for her cutting help too.

One fabric donation was received this month. It was a small amount (45 yards) but of large cuts suitable for making backs. This is very appreciated. Thanks Mr. Murray!

On a personal note: A dear friend of mine retired suddenly this month which caught me off guard because I realized that our professional relationship will be ending. Not wanting to just say goodbye, I made a quilt and mailed it as a surprise for him. I used the design of fireworks bursting to quilt it and entitled the quilt, "Celebrate Retirement". He was overwhelmed and loved the gift.

Don't you love to surprise special people with a quilt? I do.... (Here's a photo of a portion of the quilt. Look closely for the fireworks.)

Happy Birthday America!

From Piedmont Athens Regional Medical Center

Susan gave out 7 quilts on her visit in June and this little girl was one of the patients she saw. She reports that all the kids were pleasantly getting well.
