

Quilts for Kids:

Volunteer quilters transforming fabrics into patchwork quilts that comfort children in need

Northeast Georgia Chapter

February 2019

On this first day for February, it feels like Spring. What a change in temperature from earlier this week! I know that we will have more cold weather and probably rain, but sure do like this sun shiny day!

As we begin a new month of chapter business, let me tell you that our stash of finished quilts is low. Yes, I gave away 80 to Panama City at Christmas that maybe I shouldn't have. I just didn't think it was right to keep so many when so many kids were needing a "hug" at Christmas.

I am just asking for those of you that can, keep making quilts for us. We have kits ready for you to sign out, so ask. If you need a reminder, go to page 3 to see the places you can get a kit. Or if you use your fabric, we'll give you a receipt for tax purposes. Patterns and dimensions are on our website at www.NeGaQuiltsforkids.org under the "How Can I help" tab.

This month I will be attending my first quilt guild retreat and am so excited to experience several days of sewing while allowing someone else to cook the meals. (Poor Harold will be on his own.) I am preparing several projects to complete while I'm there. And of course, I will be taking a bucketful of our kits to provide "mindless sewing" for those who want them. Wouldn't it be great if I came home with a bucketful of finished tops? I'm just saying....

February is heart month so be good to your heart. Wear red. Love your sweetie!

Stay tuned for next month's report from our chapter of Quilts for Kids. Thanks for your support and

♥ Happy Valentines Day ♥
