Gainesville Evening Workshop met on November 11th and the ladies photographed below were in attendance. They are Lauren, Cindy, Janice, leader Tracy, Lorrie and me. We discussed our quilt project and they signed out kits and learned what supplies are needed to bring next month in order to cut some kits. There was much enthusiasm as they named other friends who might enjoy helping. I expect this workshop will grow in size very quickly. Thanks to Lorrie for helping me answer their questions.

Spread the word if you know anyone who could help us each 2nd Monday of the month from 6:30 pm to 9:00pm at 311 Jesse Jewel Parkway, suite 101 Gainesville.

Read ahead to see the work of our chapter.

I hope you had a Happy Thanksgiving!

On November 21st I made an updated presentation to the Hall County Optimist Club. This is my third time visiting the club who have been supporting us since 2013. After my short update, they presented me with a check for $200 to use in buying more fabric for our quilts. Thanks so much for their continued support.

Athens

One of the patients Susan delivered a quilt to at Piedmont Athens Medical Center. Nineteen patients received quilts this day. The pediatric floor was maxed out.

This is the visitor's lounge on the Pediatric floor at Northeast Georgia Medical Center. Looks like they are ready for Christmas.

At Hopewell Workshop in October

These quilts were turned in and didn't make the last newsletter. This group is small in number but #1 in producing quilts. Thanks Ladies!
