August Workshops are Cancelled

Hello again from the Northeast Chapter of Quilts for Kids. It's very quiet around here (except for the daily thundershowers). We received two large donations this month totaling 95 yards of fabric and 6 bags of batting. Almost all of the fabric was kid's prints and has been cut into kits and is ready for distribution when needed.

Our Northeast Georgia hospital is almost maxed out in the newly designed Covid -19 unit but patients in the Pediatric Unit is minimal. We did deliver 10 quilts to them this month for future use.

Piedmont Athens hospital has implemented a new procedure of handing the quilts and has asked us not to bring any more for now.

Just know that we will need quilts someday so if you need a kit, let me know. Georgia Sewing and Quilt-n-Kaboodle Shops have our kits and gladly sign them out for us. So check with either store or contact me.

Now on a personal note, many of you know that my daughter Natalie is getting married in October. Her first bridal shower was held recently and she received so many nice gifts. I had given her a wall hanging quilt to display at the reception and she asked if I would bring it for the shower. Of course I did and would like to share a photo of her with it. (see page 2) Next week we visit the hairdresser for a trial make-up and hairdo for her. I'm excited to go along and probably take some "before" and "after" photos.

Not being able to hold workshops and guild meetings is such a change in my life but being available for bridal activities is so special. I'm also quilting projects that I've wanted to make. The garden has played out. It was a fun experience and yielded a freezer full of veggies.

I'll close with a photo of flowers from the garden. Stay safe and maybe we'll see each other again soon. Maybe September...???

Natalie and her "Be my Valentine" quilt made of flannel with appliqued squares.

This is the Feathered Star quilt I gave her at the shower. It's for her antique iron bed which will become a guest bed. It's quilted with patterns named serenity, joyful and destiny which seems appropriate wishes for her marriage.
