Thankful, Grateful and Blessed

What a month November was! Daylight savings time, an election, a granddaughter's wedding, husband facing surgery, Thanksgiving postponed then rescheduled, ate too much, and now making ready to decorate for Christmas. What was your month like? If you are like me, you over extended your abilities and capabilities. Why do we do that?

The good news is we have surpassed giving 5800 quilts in eight years and have given more than 300 in 2020. And we have at least 200 quilts ready to be given out and over 200 kits are out there being made. The fabric shelves are stocked and more fabric is scheduled to come in soon. Many of our volunteers are quilting steadily and some of the guilds are holding meetings to inspire and teach us new techniques. Our chapter is in great shape as 2021 nears. We are ready for the challenge. What will the new year bring?

Our workshops are still closed but that hasn't stopped us yet. We may have a solution to meeting but it's not finalized. More info to follow when I know more. In the meantime use the two quilt shops for getting more kits and dropping off finished quilts. The shops are Georgia Sewing and Quilting in Buford and Quilt-n-Kaboodle in Cleveland. They have been so instrumental in our success all these years. Thanks to them and Thread Bear for all their support of our chapter. The addresses are on page 4. Let me know if you have quilts to turn in and I'll meet you somewhere if one of the quilt shops is not convenient.

With all that said, now let me

- #1 Thank you for all your help and support,
- #2 Wish you a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Enjoy your family and friends and gather or visit safely. Your health and welfare is most important.
