

Quilts for Kids:

Volunteer quilters transforming fabrics into patchwork quilts that comfort children in need

It's been another busy month for our chapter. Thankfully there are many volunteers still willing to sew quilts for us because the need is still there. I've made many trips out to pick up quilts, give out kits and capitalize on fabric sales.

The little ones are still having to be hospitalized from RSV, and here are new kids at the domestic violence shelter. We are collecting quilts for Dianne F. to make a large donation to two of the Children's Healthcare of Atlanta hospitals in August. She and some of the members of the Spirited Quilters guild are having a retreat soon and we hope that a few quilts will result from their efforts.

As a result of the recent notice that Georgia Sewing and Quilting will be closing soon, there has been a sale of select fabrics. I had quilts and kits to pick up from there so I participated in reducing their inventory. I was able to choose bolts of fabrics that could be used for the backs in our kits. It won't go too far, but has helped as we put together 88 more kits for the next month. Thanks to the Chunking Team for their hard work.

Please contact me if you have quilts to turn in, or want a kit or two to sew. My email is NortheastGaQ4K@gmail.com or my phone is 678-617-9671. I'll continue to go to Ga Sewing on the weekends if there's quilts left there for me. Just let me know if you have dropped off any. And I'll still be giving out kits at Hall County Quilt Guild meetings and at Quilt-n-Kaboodle Shop in Cleveland.

Enjoy August! I'll be staying in the house where it's cool when I can. Hope to see you soon. We're still having workshops as long as the churches allow us to meet. See the list of addresses and dates on page 3 of this newsletter.

Until next time....
