Autumn, Braves Baseball and Halloween

As I recap the month of October, I am watching game 2 of the World Series, planning to meet friends tomorrow for a birthday dinner, and celebrating Halloween with the six great-grandbabies on Sunday for dinner and to watch them leave on a tractor pulled wagon to Trick or Treat in the neighborhood nearby.

We had planned to host a dinner on Saturday for my daughter, her husband and his parents, but Natalie and Greg who both play tennis, have won a place in their league's playoffs. So dinner is postponed to a later date. Hope they each bring home a trophy.

My house has been decorated with pumpkins and bats since October 1st anticipating this dinner. I have invited the great-grands and their parents to drop by and see it all.

Exciting news for us is a new quilt shop has opened and will carry our kits for sign out. Melissa Matthews Porter, formerly of Georgia Sewing and Quilting has opened a shop in Suwanee. Her grand opening is November 13th so check it out.

It's A Crafted Cottage located at 3957 Lawrenceville-Suwanee Road, Ste C Suwanee, Ga 30024 470-326-6272

I plan to be at the shop for the block of the month on the first Saturday of each month at 9:00am. I'll refresh the supply of kits and pick up the finished quilts.

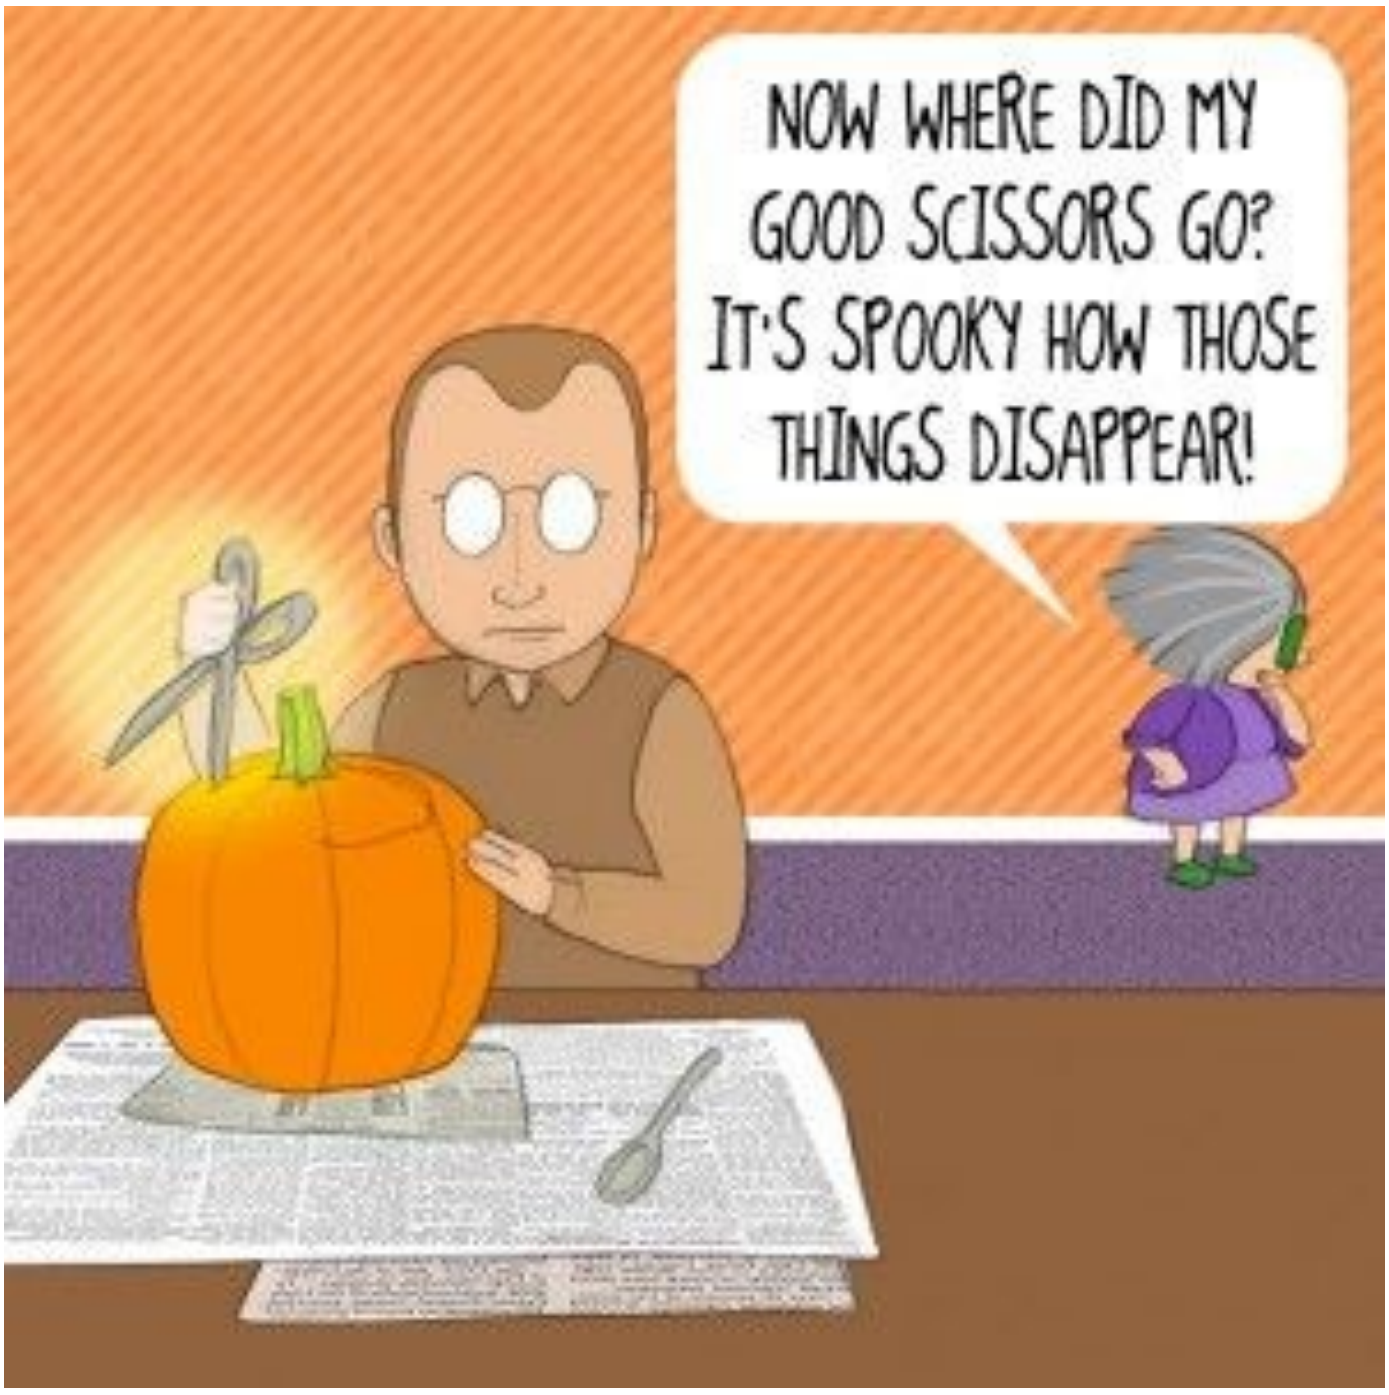

Since the Boo Crew could not meet to deliver quilts to our hospital, I made sure that many Halloween themed quilts were delivered during the last couple of weeks. The kids should be happy with the selection. Sure wish I could see their reactions.
